3.0 Public Participation – Julie Wicks was present on behalf of the Harrisville Public Library. She presented Mrs. Snider, District Clerk, with the required number of signatures so the Public Library could place a proposition on the ballot at the May 19th vote. Mrs. Hall stated she wished the library would wait to have this on the ballot again this year since all expenses have gone up for the taxpayers. Mrs. Hall stated she reviewed the Technology Plan and since this is going to cost the district money can this be something that can wait. Mr. Finster explained that we are required to have a Technology Plan and to meet certain criteria throughout the year. Mrs. Hall inquired when construction would start for the Capital Project. Mr. Finster explained if all the necessary approvals are received, this would start in the summer of 2027. Mrs. Hall also discussed Senior Night for the boys’ basketball. She said three of the boys did not play at all and she wanted to know if there was anything written stating a senior would play on their senior night. Mr. Luther stated currently this is not in the athletic handbook.

4.0 Old Business - None

5.0 Committee Reports –

5.1 Finance Meeting – March 5, 2026 – Mr. Finster stated we are facing a budget gap and he, Mr. Luther and Mrs. Frost have been working to figure out how do lessen the gap. As of right now , the State budget will be later than April 1st. Therefore, it is very hard to finalize our budget without knowing the exact aid we will be receiving.
