

A student brought up that we are unprepared for what to do if they are in the hallway during a lockdown drill. What is a student supposed to do if they are locked out of the classroom? What if there is a student trying to get into the classroom during the lockdown?

A student also mentioned that fire drills should be more realistic, with hallways or doors blocked off.